AFTER

DEDICATION

33 YEARS, WE THANK YOU

Mr. John Soares is a man who takes pride in his work, and the work of his students. He cares a great deal about all of the students at Live Oak. That is why we wish to give a special thanks to Mr. Soares, by dedicating the 1979-1980 La Encina to him. He is a teacher who has spent 33 years helping and caring about Live Oak students.

Born in San Jose, Mr. Soares spent his childhood in Santa Clara. Growing up on a ranch led to his love of gardening and enjoyment of the outdoors. Now, besides gardening, his interests are: gourmet cooking, reading good books, listening to classical music, and keeping up with the current events.

Mr. Soares is a father, as well as an art teacher. Both of his daughters, Margo and Gina graduated from Live Oak, as well as two of his three sons, Scott and Matt.

Mr. Soares was in World War II for four years, 1941 to 1945, working efficiently with personnel. While in the war, he befriended such men as "Lefty", "Busy Little", "Hair", "Stinky", and some who shall be nameless.

Mr. Soares has traveled to England, France, Belgium, and across the U.S. Ask him to tell you about some of his crazy stories. Everyone loves to hear army stories.

Mr. Soares..... we thank you with all of our hearts for the many years you have dedicated to us. Live Oak High School appreciates everything you have done. Again, we say,

THANK YOU!!!!!!

EMERALD REGIME

Marching is not something just anyone can do. This skill takes hours of practice, to learn and perfect. These many hours of practice teach the band and color guard to form perfectly straight lines or gently curving arcs, while producing an exciting or moving piece of music. For the past four years the band has been on the top, winning many first place awards and gaining the title of "The Best Band in the Land." This year attendance in band has dropped considerably. Some people quit because of sports, some because of Mr. Rubino's leaving, and a few because band takes up a lot of time and effort. It has taken a lot of hard, hard work on the part of our young band director to get the band organized this year. We've all learned quite a bit about working hard for a position on top, considering the loss of many members. At Cupertino, our first competition, we took first in our division. We also took a first in our division. Pleasanton was nicknamed "Custer's Last Stand" because of the rivalry we have with the Independence Marching Band. Pleasanton was our big battle with them. Although we are in different classes we can still compete scores. In Pleasanton we just missed them by just a point. Our drum majors Troy Center and Rayford Bunchy, Hudson our color guard captain Kim Perkins along with a structure Bill Klatt and Allen A. ex pupils in drums Kirby Newk with color guard and Charles Iwanaga. Central marching and maneuvering are striving for the Emerald Regime to reach a grand total number one. The color guard this year was gaining excellent in its rowness. This year with about twenty out of thirty new girls and a new instructor things were tough. Everyone really worked hard so new with a year's experience under their belts here is they know next year is going to be a winning year. The band too along with Mr. Carpenter knows it's going to be a winning year. No. 1 isn't far now!

OAK LEAF

The "Oak Leaf", Live Oak's newspaper, was better than ever this year. The award-winning publication had a new advisor this year, Ann Weatherford. She filled in for Harvev Wehner who took a year's leave of absence to develop Live Oak's first radio station. He will return to his position next year, while Mrs. Weatherford will go on teaching English.

Our newspaper has won many awards in the past. This year the "Oak Leaf" was rated number one in CCS, competing with forty other newspapers. They also won the Quill & Scroll first place award, and the National Scholastic Press Association award for overall excellence. The "Oak Leaf" has more combined awards than any other high school newspaper in the state, and the entire staff deserves a lot of credit for their great work.

for two years before she was awarded a permanent teaching position this year. As well as teaching two periods of Journalism 2, the class which produces the "Oak Leaf", she also taught Journalism 1, and English classes. Next year Mrs. Weatherford will leave the "Oak Leaf" to Mr. Wehner, and go on teaching English, and maybe History.

Mrs. Weatherford did a great job with the "Oak Leaf", and her first year at Live Oak has been very successful.

FBLA

Live Oak High School Chapter 4637 of the Future Business Leaders Of America is among the 8,000 chapters throughout the nation. The 80 members who belong this year are among the 260,000 high school students who are members of FBLA developing leadership service, and scholarship while learning about the American free enterprise system.

Leadership training for local chapter officers was provided for all chapters in California at the President's Conference in Fresno on October 27 and 28, 1979. Some of the officers who attended were, Carey Kludt (President), Tracy Santos (Recording Secretary), Janet Simonini (Corresponding Secretary), and Lisa Perez (Reporter).

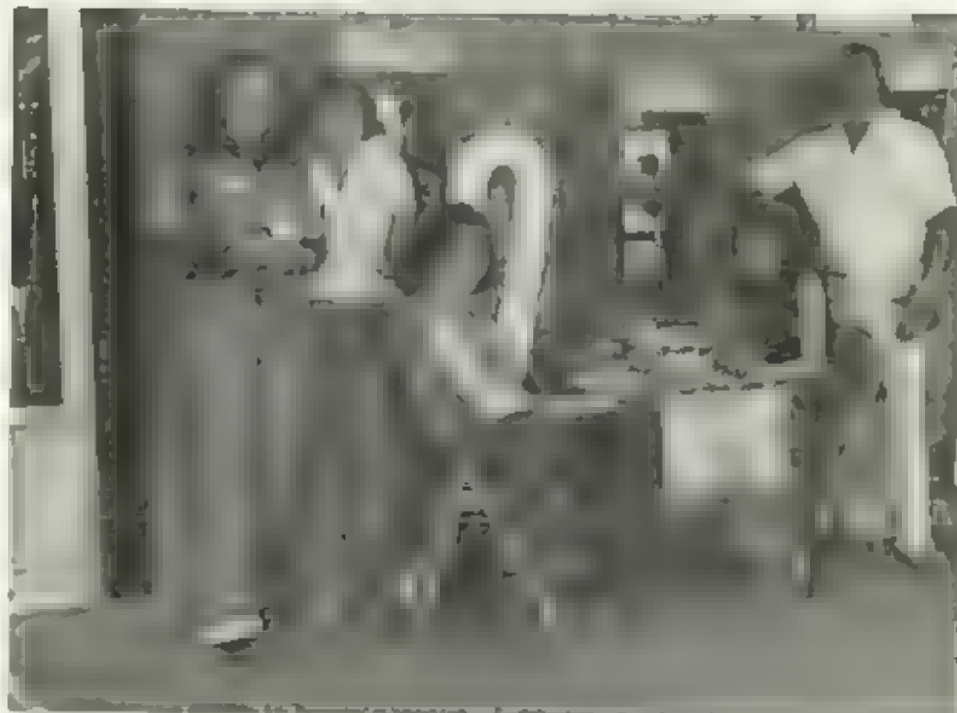

At these workshops, the officers learned about making the chapter successful in terms of competitive events, service activities, fund raising, running for offices at the section, state, and national levels, parliamentary procedure, communication, making presentations, and about the FBLA organization.

Assisting the Lions Club with their White Cane Day is a tradition. October 5 and 6, thirty different members contributed their time to this worthy cause. Serving Morgan Hill's Founders Day Dinner in November has also become a tradition. A group of 25 helped with the Community Easter Egg hunt sponsored by the Downtown Merchants Association, the Recreation Department, and the Chamber of Commerce.

Learning first-hand how the American free enterprise system works is an integral part of being an active member in FBLA. This year, for the first time, Carey Kludt, the president, had the privilege of attending the Board of Directors meetings of the Downtown Merchants Association. Collating 4,000 copies of their publicity booklet and distributing 9,000 of them to all of the households in Morgan Hill was one of the projects.

Hearing speakers from business and industry and field trips to see the latest in office equipment and the office environment are benefits gained by FBLA members.

Loyalty to the school and helping with its activities is another phase. Members are represented as House and Senate members to the Student Congress, Student Body Bank, the hub of the financial world for the students.

ASB

This year's Student Council did an excellent job for the Student Body. A few goals fulfilled by the cabinet this year included bulletin and announcement changes and improvements better rallies, and more student involvement in sports, clubs and student government.

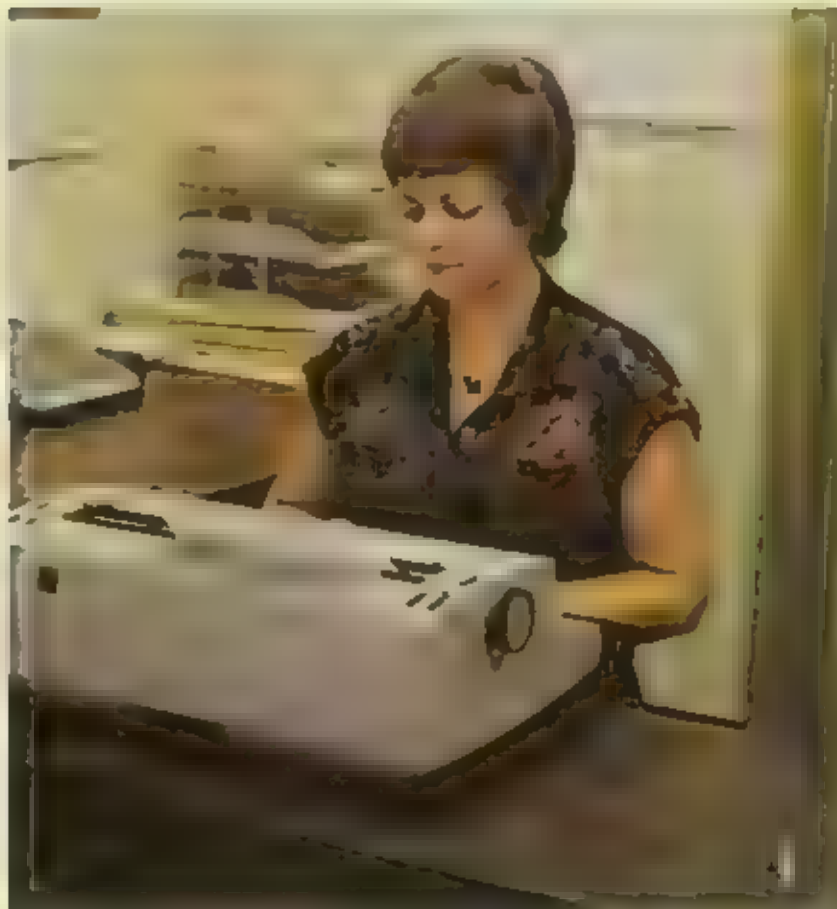

It takes a lot of time and hard work to be an ASB officer. Meetings, classes, and after school activities all are part of the job.

Many students did not realize the time and hard work that was devoted by these officers to make the activities the successes they were. Activities such as Homecoming, Dances and Rallies were just some examples of the jobs that took long hours of planning and preparation. Despite the many criticisms that were leveled at the ASB officers, they still used their talents and abilities to improve student government and activities here at Live Oak.

CHEERLEADERS

The Live Oak Cheerleaders are eighteen of the most energetic girls at Live Oak. Everyone of these girls spread school spirit like fire. Led by the senior Kristen Murphy, the cheerleaders produce school spirit at every rally by performing their cheers and routines. The Varsity squad is Lisa De La Torre, Susan Taylor, Shelley Boone, and Jonae Muzii. The Squad captain is Lisa Agosti. The junior Varsity cheerleaders led by Connie Sachtlebon, consists of Lori Carr, Andrea Bluth, Carla Singleton, and Jeannie Lytle. Working with the cheerleaders as equals, are the song girls, and the lovable Acorns, the school Mascots.

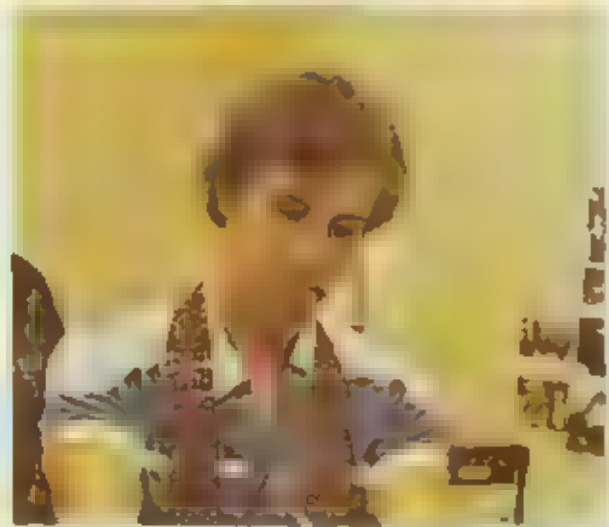

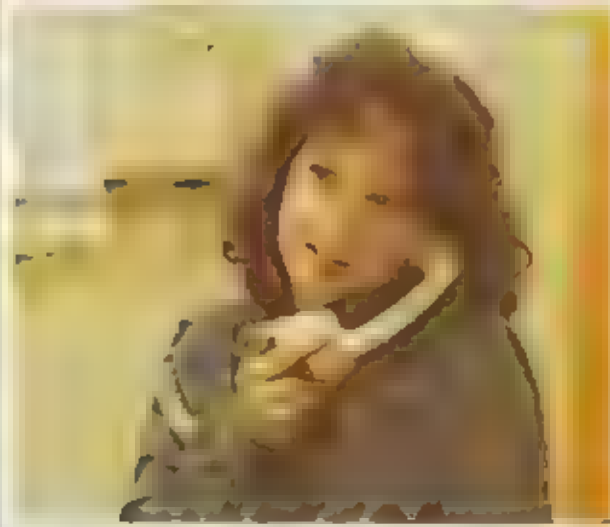

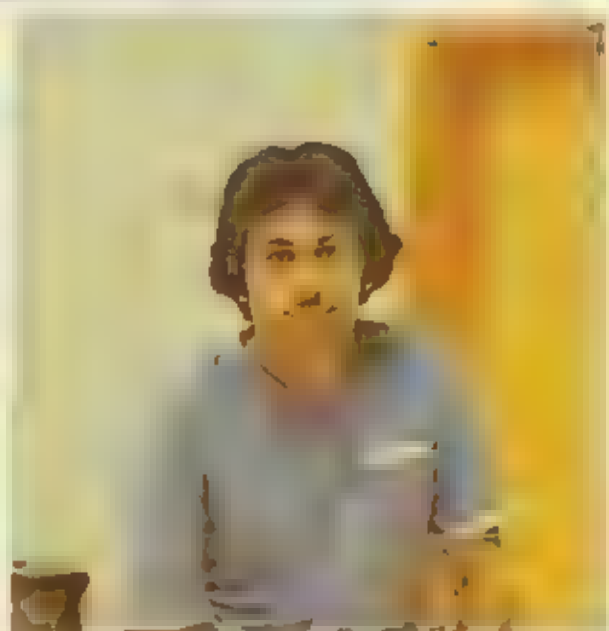

LA ENCINA

Born in Gary, Indiana and a graduate of Ball State University, John Paul Lemen, an English teacher, succumbed to Cancer last fall. He was a simple man with a taste for humor and meeting people differently through the lens of his camera. For ten years he traveled to Europe with different groups of students and his camera at his side.

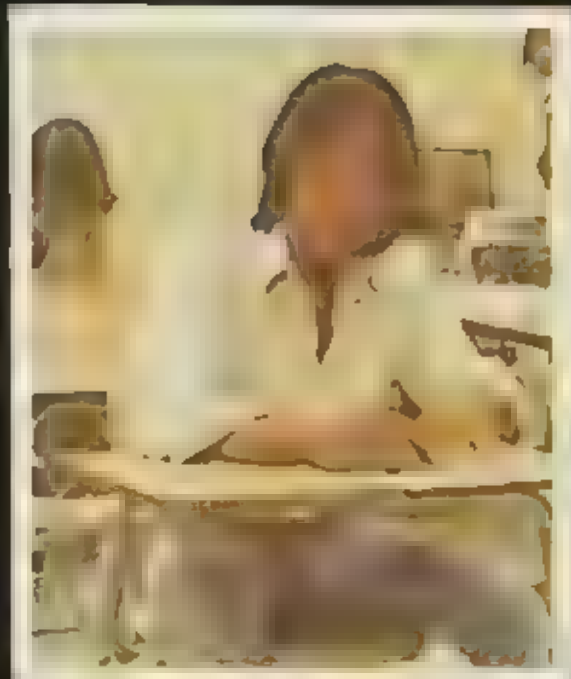

We will particularly remember his efforts and dedication as the advisor of the La Encina for twenty years.

John Paul Lemen is gone but he left behind much of himself in his pictures and several volumes of the La Encina. We will always remember him with fondness.

The Block L.O. club is for males who have earned their varsity block. For those students who don't know what a varsity block is, it's the large L.O. letters on the school jackets. The purpose of the club is to support our athletic organizations by going to watch teams who rarely get support. Some of the clubs' activities consists of hiking trips, parties, and maybe a ski trip. I find clubs such as this one are good assists to the expansion of school spirit.

G.A.A.

The Girls Athletic Association is for the female students who are participating in after school sports. The purpose of the club is to unite the girls and become a recognized group on campus. They feel that the male club has become too much of a dominate figure and now it's their turn.

Some activities planned for the club consist of picnics, beach parties and a fun day. A fun day is a day when the club would invite another G.A.A. club for a day of fun competition. It looks like the girls are going to have an active year and are destined to meet their goals. Watch out guys.

BOOSTERS

Live Oak is extremely lucky to have a devoted group of supporters like the Booster Club for our Athletic program. Through their commitment of raising funds and putting out a lot of their own time, the club has helped out by announcing at football games, timing at swim meets, etc

This year the club consisted of 20 merchants who donated $100.00 and in return they were presented with a plaque with their name engraved on it. In addition to the merchants there are also 150 families who are members of the booster Club. Each family contributed $10.00 to become a member. These donations all went toward the Live Oak Athletic program

SPIRIT CLUB

The Live Oak Spirit Club is made up of some of the most spirited people in the school. They are people who want to be a part of the school enough to support it. The majority of the club's members are sophomores. The club is responsible for all the posters at the games and they attend as many sporting events as possible. Not only are they a sort of "student booster club" but, they really help out the Cheerleaders by knowing all the cheers and yells. Unlike last year's Pep Rowdies they are an A.S.B.-Spiritleader oriented club. They are mainly at the games to instill school spirit and support the Cheerleaders. The Live Oak Spirit Club is not out there promoting themselves but the school as a whole. Their main goal is to generate school-wide spirit.

FRENCH CLUB

A parents' dinner, a "French camp" and a group of girls dressed up as can can ettes played big parts in the lives of French club members this year. Sponsored by Mrs. Sue Stanga, the club was active in the community as well as the school. By going beyond the language to learn about the people and their customs. Overall, the French Club had quite a fun, exciting and enriching year that provided the students with an opportunity to use their French in many ways.

MAYO CLUB

The Mexican American Youth Organization, or MAYO club for short, was a very active club this year. The purpose was to get students of Mexican-American background together to further cultural self-awareness and provide them with constructive activities that will serve themselves as well as the community. Being one of the oldest clubs at Live Oak, participation in many fun and enriching activities was a major highlight of the year. The club organized an annual disco dance, a trip to Marriott's Great America, a float in the Homecoming parade and Cinco de Mayo. The most outstanding factors of the club however were the fun and social aspects that were provided during meetings and the social activities.

B.S.U.

Last year the black students of Live Oak got together and formed the Black Student Union. The purpose of the club is to give students of all ethnic backgrounds an awareness of the black culture.

Even though the members have decreased from last year's total with two original members, John Sampson and Audrey Mingo, the club is moving strong.

During February, the B.S.U. club had a Black History Week. During this period of time they displayed exhibits, showing the past, present and the future. Also in February the club participated in a state wide meeting. While there they discussed major issues dealing with blacks and their culture.

CHESS

In order to promote inter school activity and promote the strategic game of chess the Chess Club teaches the game of chess and how to improve one's skill in this fascinating sit-down sport. A new club on campus this year the Chess Club was organized by Richard Carpen who thought the people would support it. The Chess Club has been a great success.

HIGH SCHOOL RODEO

High School Rodeo is a nationwide organization for students who would like the opportunity to compete in rodeo events on the amateur level.

The association is made up of several districts. Live Oak students compete in District Four. Rodeos are held in King City, Hollister, San Juan Bautista, and San Francisco. The largest rodeo for the members is the Junior Grand Nationals, held at the Cow Palace annually.

There were about fifteen Live Oak students participating in High School Rodeo this year. The president of District Four, Tony Gauthier, and the California High School Rodeo Queen, Tracy Hitchcock, are both Live Oak students.

High School Rodeo competitions include calf roping, barrel racing, bronc riding, reining, and goat tying events, as well as many others. For those students involved in the organization, it certainly proved to be an enjoyable experience.

GALLERY

The Gallery puts out a magazine which consists of some of the best writing Live Oak has to offer. In this magazine, a collection of poems, essays and short stories written by different English classes are selected by the class members. This is not to say that the club doesn't do any of its own writing. The club offers its members an opportunity to express their own inner feeling in words. This experience helps the writer to bloom to the full potential of his creativity. And who knows, Live Oak could be the spawning ground for the literary greats of tomorrow.

ORCHESTRA

Live Oak's orchestra got off to a fantastic start for the '79-'80 school year. Several musicians from the band donated their time on Tuesdays and Thursdays during fourth period to create an even bigger orchestra. Mrs. Barracough teaches three periods at Britton but she comes to Live Oak for one period of orchestra. One of the orchestra's functions is to put on the Gong show. The members of the orchestra audition acts, set dates, sell tickets and run the show. They are a gifted group of students and if you missed the orchestra in performance this year you missed the biggest small part of Live Oak.

CHOIR

Mr. Grunstrad, director

Lee on the piano

This year's choir is smaller than last year's due to the fact there are no more freshmen to recruit. This did not affect the quality; in fact it remains the same. At their Open House concert they performed the theme songs from Happy Days and Lavern and Shirley while dressed up in fifties clothes. They sang with such clarity they could cut glass. Many long hours went into the production of the concert and many more will go in to produce a Christmas concert, winter concert, and a musical concert planned for the spring. If you miss any one of these concerts you missed the chance to hear some good music.

The club this year was blessed with extra funds. The funds will be used for a concert tour to Washington While on the tour they will be in competition. Mr Grunstrad feels his students are ready.

... ON CAMPUS?

Live Oak's water polo team was ranked first in CCS, until they came against Santa Teresa and met a sad defeat. Our football team took the STAL title again this year and even gave Oak Grove a fight in the CCS playoffs. Congressman Norman Mineta was a visitor on our campus this year. We had a few rallies cancelled because of the bad language used. Home coming was almost cancelled because of fighting between the classes. Mr. Lee Carpenter was the new director of the Emerald Regime while Mr. Mike Rubino was on a years leave of absence. The wall and side walks in front of our school were decorated with words and phrases that shouldn't be repeated. The Trick or Treat for UNICEF was a total success it made around $14,000. The Track shed was burned by vandals costing $6,000 to replace and the Baseball equipment that was stolen out of their shed cost the ASB an additional $4,000.

OPEN HOUSE

The Open House held here at Live Oak last October was a huge success. A new format was used to make the evening more interesting and fun for everybody. Each department, (English, Math, etc.), and many of the clubs on campus set up information booths in the gym for the parents and students. There were free cupcakes and coffee provided, as well as entertainment by the Live Oak Emerald Regime, Choir, Orchestra, and the Speech and Debate Club. There was a large turnout and it was an enjoyable evening for all that attended. There was also a dinner sponsored by K S. for the teachers

Work Experience

When the Work Experience program was first introduced to this school, there were approximately 36 enrolled. Now 10 years later, there are 163. Mr. Gorshe, the advisor, has taught in this position for 8 of those years. Being the advisor, Mr. Gorshe has the opportunity to go to the different employers and talk to them about their employees. He enjoys the students with which he associates and their positive attitude about the working world.

Career Center

Mrs. Carter has worked in the Career Center for 6 years. Her job includes many activities such as career and scholarship information, organizing speakers, handling work permits, lockers and a few other jobs.

Mrs. Carter also gives general counseling about career choices to individual people. She enjoys the atmosphere of the Career Center, and the people who need and want her help.

Nurse

While talking with Margret Radtke, our school nurse, I asked her what nursing involves. She said that it includes such things as the health of the students, teaching first aid, and the basic safety of the campus.

Nurse Radtke also goes to two other schools besides Live Oak, they are Central and Encino.

Library

This year only two librarians have been found in the library Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Franco. Those librarians of the past have either been transferred to other schools or have been given different positions. Lack of funds is the main problem due to Prop. 13.

The students here are pretty special people, says Mrs. Marshall, head librarian. If they weren't I wouldn't be working here.

COUNSELORS

The Counseling department here at Live Oak was founded twenty six years ago by Phyllis Thomas. She started the program because she enjoys helping students; which is common among all counselors. For example, Sandy Shaeffer sponsors the Big Brother Big Sister program and Phyllis Thomas began a scholarship program to help students who need financial aid to enter college.

Their main purpose is to help students plan their academic program and give information to them on various career opportunities. They go about this by matching up their courses to the career they have in mind. If you are not doing well in school they try to change your attitude. They get you to look at yourself realistically. Counselors try to point out those areas in which you need help in. The Live Oak Counseling department can help influence your future plans for the better.

CLASSIFIED PERSONNEL

Keeping things organized here at
L.O. are the secretaries.

We thank you, Mr.
Cotta!

Jack Cotta is the custodial foreman here at Live Oak, and has been working for us for the past fifteen years. In the words of Mr. Almond, Mr. Cotta has the ability to "get the job done". On any given day, he may be required to set up bleachers, fix jammed lockers, repair a broken oven, and clean up the campus after lunch. He has the ability to organize his small staff and complete all of this work; and a lot more. He also has a great personality, and is loved by adults and students alike.

Mr. Cotta has a wife, two kids, and a granddaughter. He spends his free time hunting, fishing, and making his own wine.

Without Mr. Cotta, campus wouldn't be half as nice as it is; and the La Encina staff would like to thank him for doing such a great job.

JANITORS

The janitors at Live Oak are a hard working group. They include: (left to right) Tony Sequerrar, Jack Cotta, Tom Callahan, Richard Samron, Ray Prucitt, and Nick Speck. Everyday the janitors water the yard, clean the restrooms, vacuum the classrooms, and open/closed lockers. They have to install everything from pencil sharpeners to the new scoreboard on the football field.

The janitors are a great deal more than cleaning people; they are expert handymen, and we owe them a great deal.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

The special education program here at Live Oak started back in 1940, to help kids with learning disabilities. The most common disability is psychoneurological learning disability. A person with this disability has an average to high intelligence, adequate hearing and vision. The person's only problem is that there is a disconnect in their behavior. Most of the people around the L.O. campus don't understand that the people in the special education classes are just regular people like you and me, with the same real feelings. These people just need a little extra push.

AN ALMOST OLYMPIC TRAINER

John Manning, our Live Oak trainer has been a trainer for eleven years. When he first became a trainer it was only a "side life" from coaching. Manning has taken courses in human physiology, biodynamics motor learning, and rehabilitation, along with care and prevention of injuries, to qualify him as a trainer. John tells us that if he applied at a college as a trainer he would be accepted, but he would rather work at a high school because it's more fun. The two things that really help Coach Manning enjoy his training job are "working with kids and seeing an athlete overcome injury." Manning had 3 training aides this year that were a lot of help to him Mark La-Pointe, Lisa Delanie, and Julie Hernandez. Live Oak should be extremely proud and thankful for such an excellent teacher, great coach and qualified trainer.

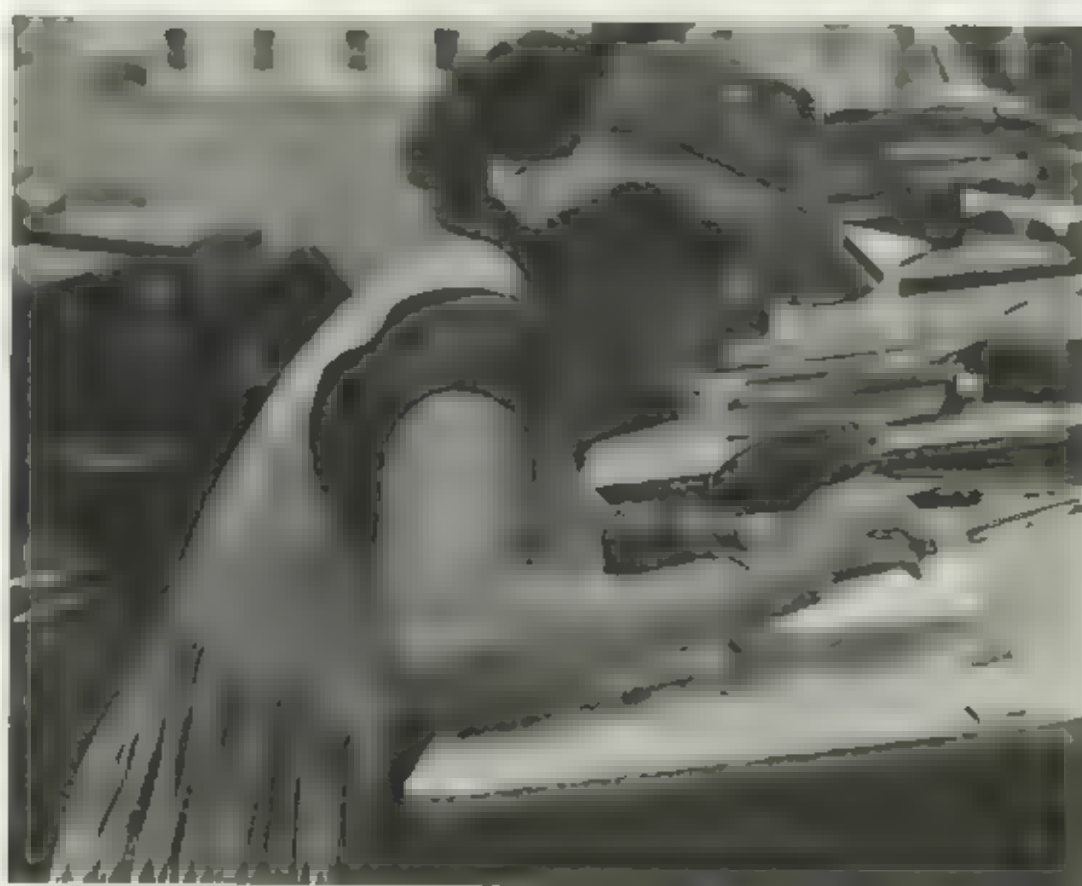

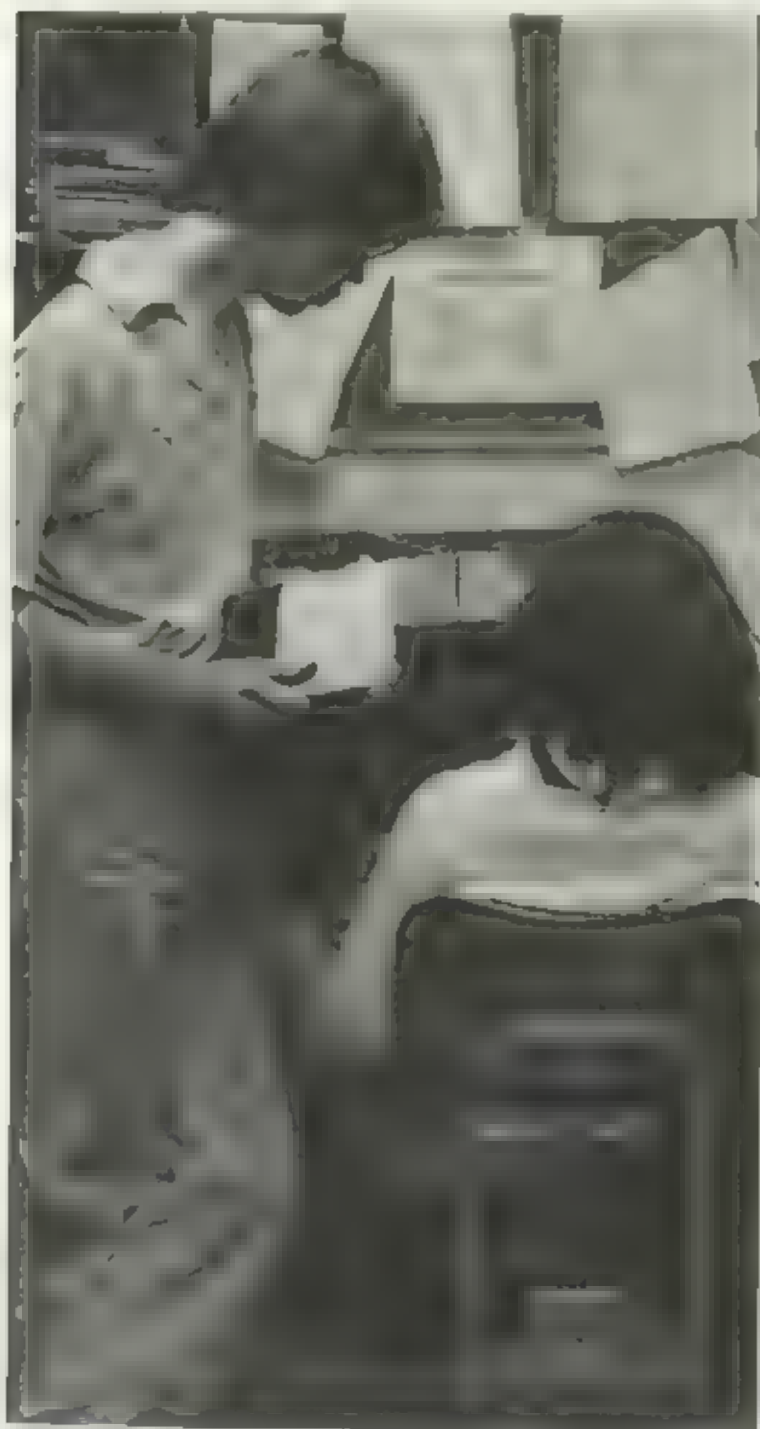

IMPOSSIBLE JOB WELL DONE!

Mr. Lee Carpenter began his music education at the age of 10 when he started taking drum and piano lessons. He attended Monta Vista High School in Saratoga from 1969-1973. During his senior year he wrote the drill for the band's half-time show. In 1971 he joined the Santa Clara Vanguard Drum and Bugle Corps. After high school he went to De Anza College in Cupertino and received his "AA" degree. In 1975 "Mr C" attended San Francisco State University to study music education. He graduated in 1978 with a Bachelor's of Music degree. In 1976 Carpenter became the director of the Guardsmen Drum and Bugle Corps of Redwood City. In 1979 he became the Brass Instructor of the South San Francisco Conquistadors Drum and Bugle Corps. During the first season with the Conquistadors they were competing in the Drum Corps International Championships, and they placed 3rd in class "A". In July of 1979 Lee "got lucky," he became the Director of the Live Oak Emerald Regime. In addition to writing the band's field show, teaching the drill, arranging the music and working with the Color Guard, he still works with the Conquistadors and is a consultant for the Capachino Band.

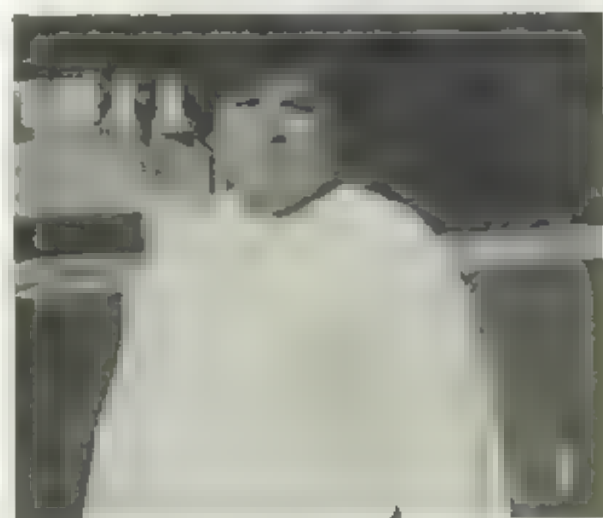

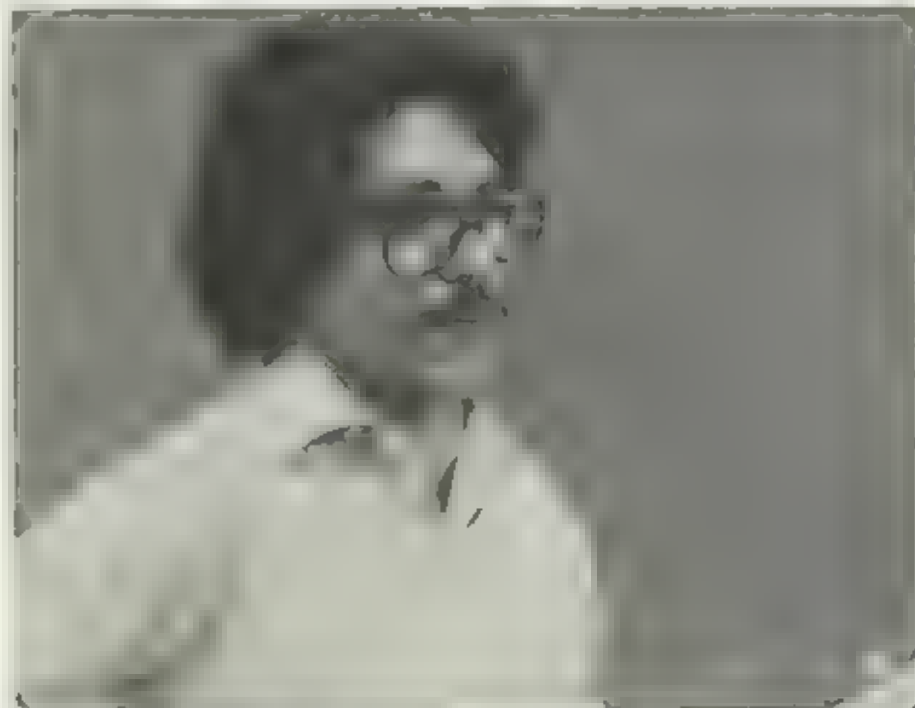

R.O.P.

ROP stands for Regional Occupational Program. The ROP program is designed to train students and adults in career skills. When a student finishes this course, he or she should be ready to begin work in his or her career. This year the South County ROP program had about 450 students enrolled in 12 occupational areas. Transportation is provided from Live Oak to one of 8 class sites. Some training is done on actual business sites, such as hospitals, banks, and child care facilities. ROP is a very worthwhile program to enter and it can be very enlightening to a student who is undecided on a career.

BILINGUAL

The Bilingual Education program is supported by the Federal Government. It is designed to help students which are not native English speakers and need extra help in understanding their work because of this language barrier. Most of these students come from Mexico, Latin America, Columbia or Vietnam. Some of the teachers involved in the program are: Mary Y. Kiyama and Jo Ann W. the first who normally teaches English speakers and Paul Lopez, Ramon Roldan, Don Loquian and Catalina Macias. Ernie Gonzales heads the Bilingual program and is responsible for its success in helping these students to get an equal education. Art Mungaray works as a liaison officer with the Bilingual Program.

KLEINE SCHULE

Kleine Schule is the school within a school at Live Oak. The students in Kleine Schule are responsible for the number of credits they need to earn for their graduation. That means either you have to be an independent worker or you go on the five-year plan.

Kleine Schule has the standard classes like math and science but it also has other classes like psychology and individualized P.E.

Kleine Schule is popular with its students because of the freedoms and independence of doing work at any time of the day, or to give themselves homework. Another advantage of Kleine Schule is that you may graduate at anytime as long as you have all your credits and required classes done. Many students graduate mid-term of their senior year.

Guess who was the head of a dance band with the unique name of the "Get Set". Who used to drive a fork lift and who lived in Japan for a year.

Hint: His last name ends in double D's

Guess who writes comedy and who is into making movies to match his literary wit. This cute young guy has a family of over 100 people. He was also on the Manta Vista Country team.

Duane Asplund is a real estate salesman who coaches girl's basketball and cross country at Live Oak High School. Coach Asplund has been a teacher since the beginning of the 1960's. Asplund or "Shorty" as he is sometimes called, jogs, camps or plays golf in his spare time.

Besides being conductor of the Live Oak Orchestra Kathy Barraclough is the illustrious leader of the South County symphony. Kathy also enjoys being involved in Seminars for classical music as well as playing her violin.

Mr. Randy Barton is the ceramics teacher who is usually seen driving his new Mazda RX7 or out jogging with Sandi Keith. Barton enjoys producing and selling some of his own ceramic work (maybe that's where he got the money to buy a new Mazda). Being a member of the Lupin Lodge is an activity Randy Barton also enjoys.

Robert Bick is a man who never rests, how can he when politics is a hobby of his? This social studies teacher is also an avid record collector who loves musicals and opera. Swimming is how he keeps himself in shape along with keeping up with civic affairs.

Bob Brooks

Richard Booth is a proud father of a new little baby this year before he knows it he will be the proud father of a Live Oak teenager. Mr. Booth is business teacher who used to play football for SJSU. And without Richard Booth FBLA's parliamentary team would be nowhere.

How many people do you know who tie their own flies? Well, for those of you who have had Mr. Gary Borgnini for a history class, he does do something besides engraving the Fenton-Collingwood definition of history in LO students' minds. Gary also enjoys putting those flies to use with Mr. Caredio. If you ever pass a house in the summer and you see a vegetable garden in place of a front lawn, you'll know you're passing the Borgnini Residence.

Mr. Alan Brent is a man who likes to work with woods. First he teaches it for 9 months here at LO, and then for the remaining 3 months of the year he is a construction worker. Mr. Brent is also taken with salt water, especially when he's riding high on his surf board.

Playing tennis, coaching Baseball, skiing and being with the kids in school. Boy! No wonder Mr. Bob Brooks is in such great shape. This big lovable typing teacher also enjoys reading and spending time with his daughter Liz.

Trade photos of the faculty

Mr. Don Burl is an Industrial Arts teacher that is not only into photography at school but in his spare time, too. When he is not flying, he is probably skiing, sailing or listening to music.

Bob Curedio is an old fishing buddy of Gary Borgninos. They have even bought a fishing boat together. Back packing and riding his bike everyday keeps his body beautiful.

Our new L.O. Emerald Regime director this year was Mr. Lee Carpenter. Mr. Carpenter is a man with a terrific sense of humor so that's probably why he and his friends enjoy writing comedy. He also liked to make movies to go with his witty literature. He is a young man who keeps himself busy with all sorts of musical activities. When he's not working with our marching band, he is working with a drum and bugle corps called, the Conquistadors.

He may have dropped out of Las Gatos H.S. but he's teaching English now. Mr. Mike Clampitt seems to know enough karate to take on Amu Leso in a friendly match every once in a while, at lunch time. He is also a weight lifting fan. It might be considered his favorite hobby.

Another of our physically active teachers is Mr. Frank Crosby, a chemistry teacher. He enjoys riding his bike, fishing, camping, hiking, and swimming in the ocean.

Ah, fishing, he loves it. A relaxing day by the lake with a pole in his hands is one of the ways Mr. George Daily likes to spend his time. Greenhouse gardening, with exotic plants and hunting are other things that George Daily does when he has spare time.

Our head soccer coach Mr. Norm Dow is also one of our illustrious football coaches. Speaking of football, Norm Dow was the quarterback for U.C.L.A. way back when. Mr. Dow has skiing named as his hobby.

Rich Gautschi

Roberta Geissert

A secretary at the white house! Wow! That's right, Mrs. Frances Engdahl was the personal secretary of President Truman's physician. She has lived in New York and visited Canada. She enjoys doing interior decorating in her home and helping her friends decorate theirs.

Mr. Dave Foster likes to have a good time and he achieves that by skiing and swimming. He also helps other people have a good time by playing his guitar. He says he's never home and it is probably because he is busy working for the teacher's union.

Rich Gautschi, besides teaching science and coaching track, also lifts weights and enjoys such outdoor sports as snow and water skiing. Mr. Gautschi often goes to Mexico for Christmas and Easter to get some relaxation in the sun. In the summers he goes up to Lake Tahoe where he builds homes. Gautschi also has a dog named Montalban that he loves and has three cars. (too bad none of them work.)

Roberta Geissert who works in room 904 also teaches crafts. She enjoys drawing, painting, gardening, and counseling students. She likes jazz and classical music. Her favorite singing group is Fleetwood Mac. Sometimes, in her spare time, she just lies around in the sun enjoying a good book and drinking her favorite drink of cranberry juice and mineral water with a twist of lemon. Though she will not admit it everyone of her students knows she loves her hair.

Cleo Corin, who teaches home economics, loves to cook and do crafts. She owns a mini-motor home and likes to go camping in it on vacations. She has been to such places as Europe, the Caribbean Islands, Alaska, Mexico, and Hawaii. Many of these trips were financed by the A since she was a P.F.C. in the Air Force for two years.

Dick Gorshe, who works in the Career Center, likes to hike and golf. When Mr. Gorshe graduated from high school, he was immediately drafted to fight in Korea. He spent two years in the army and retired as a sergeant. He said he would have never come to California if it were not for the army. Mr. Gorshe has been teaching for long years, and he's been at Live Oak since 1964.

Scott Grunstead, who teaches English and music, likes to snow ski, travel, and also admires exotic cars. Mr. Grunstead's real love is music. He has toured all over Europe showing off his musical talents. One time on his way to a concert his bus almost fell off a cliff while trying to avoid hitting a truck full of bricks.

Mike Hauser, who teaches physical education, and is also John Mannings' personal psychiatrist, likes to gamble, snow ski, play handball, camp and fish. Mr. Hauser also does a little carpentry on the side.

John Hunning, who teaches Kleine Schule likes to snow ski, travel, and do a little construction work for fun. Mr. Hunning really likes to just sit and read something interesting. But he hates to feed his wife's hogs. He says that his students think he's fat, but he thinks he's just pleasantly plump. He also has a teddy bear that he likes to bring into expensive restaurants, just to get the waiter's response.

Sandy Keith, who teaches English and advises the yearbook staff likes to jog, is a cookie addict and loves the ballet. She even has season tickets to A.C.T. Ms. Keith commutes from Los Gatos with "Dr. Dorian". She also works for an Orthodontist 10 hours a week. Ms. Keith has two children, one of which is ... Her dream is to teach every book she's ever read ... enlightenment.

Larry Kuester, who teaches P.E. and coaches Varsity Football, likes sex, playing poker, shooting craps, playing golf & tennis, and going camping. Mr. Kuester was never teased about his hairy nose until one day a long time ago ex-football players John Newman and Mike Borns were arguing with coach Kuester that Mike Borns was loafing on the field and John Newman said that Mike was loafing like the hairs on Kuester's nose and everyone started to laugh. Ever since then everyone teases him about his hairy nose.

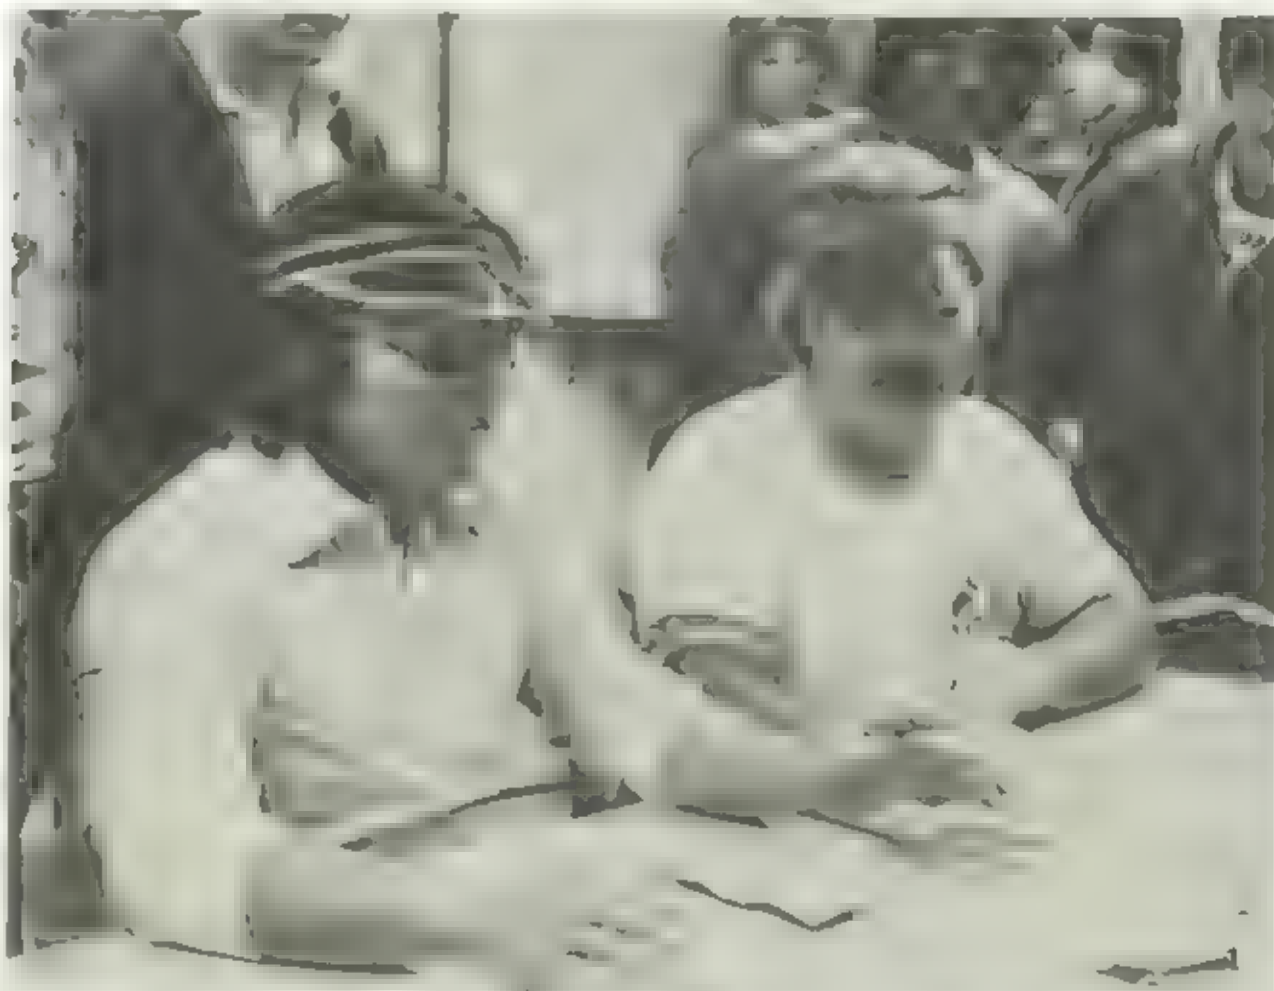

The Great Poker Game

Guess which handsome Live Oak teacher is a Los Gatos High School dropout, and who enjoys having friendly karate matches with Mr. Ami Leso, during lunch.

Hint: He has the same last name as two alumni football players and one current football star.

Guess which Live Oak faculty member used to be a professional basketball player in Barcelona, Spain. This faculty member also used to strengthen his cultural appreciation as well as his legs by taking ballet lessons with Mrs. Keith and Miss Sporch.

Hint: This person could be seen running an occasional marathon or coaching our Varsity basketball team.

Bill Lanning and Ami Leso

Bill Lanning, who teaches Aviation, likes to swim, camp, do carpentry work, and go snow and water skiing, but what he really enjoys is flying in his plane. Though he likes to fly he has a terrible fear of rollercoasters. In fact, one time he was so scared, he wouldn't go on the rollercoaster without his helmet. It was said that one time Mr. Lanning didn't come to work because he thought it was Saturday but it was really Tuesday.

Ami Leso, who teaches BSR, is quite an outdoorsman. He enjoys mountain climbing, participating in a good karate match and also likes to go jogging. Mr. Leso, besides being a teacher at Live Oak, is also a Physical Ed teacher at Gavilan College.

Mr. Loquiao is also good in carpentry, he is even building a house for himself. It's been said that Mr. Loquiao is also a part time clergyman.

Richard Lund, who teaches math, likes to hike, fish, snow ski, participate in sports and play games, especially Chess. He also likes to watch kids play the Lundhart game. Mr. Lund has taught not only at Live Oak but in Australia and Napa Valley. Another pastime of Mr. Lund is getting naughty kids with his Zap Stick.

Ms. Matos was born in Spain and then moved to Cuba where she was forced to leave when Fidel Castro came into power. Ms. Matos also has five university degrees: 3 from Cuba and 2 from schools in the United States. Ms. Matos said that if anyone wants to know anything about a country, she can tell you.

Carol Moore, who teaches English, likes to go on long walks, bake and read. She has been to such places as the Caribbean and Mexico. Ms. Moore used to work at Gavilan College when we were on double session, and she also worked on a newspaper down south called the Cuban Courier.

Mr. Spain went to U.C.L.A. where he paid his tuition by acting as extras in movies for De Mille Studios. He then went to England to continue his studies. COACHING INVOLVES WORK

Besides being a teacher, many of Live Oak's faculty were coaches as well. Coaching involved many long hard hours of working with students to build them into a united team. Many times this "building" involved time after school, on holidays, and even during summer vacation. Not even the weather could prevent the coaches from practicing with their teams.

Coaches seemed to only gain recognition when their team won or placed in the league. We all seemed to have forgotten about all of the time that these coaches had given us. The coaches aren't paid enough for their help, they volunteer. Their only reward is the satisfaction and the pride they can feel when the team gives its all, win or lose.

KATHY TALKE

ROBERT THOMPSON

JACK TODD

RAUL TORREZ

Kathryn Talke, who teaches English, likes to ski, especially likes ski mountaineering, which is like cross-country skiing, except you ski up hills. Sometimes Mrs. Talke just likes being with her family. She has 2 children, a boy who is 11 and a girl who is 4.

Robert Thompson, who teaches drafting, likes building and flying airplanes, reading magazines and watching sports. In his spare time Mr. Thompson works for Visionair and is called Mr. T; Visionair paints on shirts with an air brush at carnivals fairs, etc.

Raul Torrez, who teaches history and coaches wrestling, likes camping, fishing and especially bow hunting. Mr. Torrez has been to most of the countries in the Orient.

Donna Townsend one of our Home Ec. teachers is a roller skating fan (even though she's not very good at it). She also likes to do hand crafts and go to sports events. Exploring out-of-the-way places in San Francisco is also a favorite pastime of Ms. Townsends. Skiing is a thing that she enjoys even though she doesn't always have good luck with it. For instance there was the time when she was on the ski lift and the bindings on her skis came loose. The skis were left dangling from her feet. This all happened in the middle of a blustery blizzard, so her goggles were all fogged up, too.

Lynn Vidali, who coaches the girls swim team and teaches P.E., likes to ski, play tennis and she likes her home. She has four cats, one named Stumps. Stumps name comes from him having only a stump for a tail. She also has a sheep dog named Abigail. Ms. Vidali competed in the 1968 and the 1972 Olympic games. The swimming events she competed and won in were the 200 medley (silver medal) and the 400 individual medley (bronze medal). She also became close friends with Mark Spitz.

Eating is her favorite hobby and teaching P.E. is her profession. Carmen Villegas the girls gymnastics coach is a jogging fiend. She has to jog everyday. Ms. Villegas has performed in dance companies. She is currently teaching beginning and advanced classes in dance. Ms. Villegas loves all her students, as well as her teaching and that's why if you ever need someone to listen to you when your down she's always there.

Sonja Walker, who teaches speech, likes reading, acting and dancing, but her great love is food! England was the scene of one of the worst experiences of Sonja's life. One of our few native Californian teachers transplanted from sunny southern California, is Ms. Debbie White. She was educated first at the conservative U.C. Irvine and then on the radical campus of U.C. Berkeley. Debbie enjoys skiing, racquetball and tennis. "The Caribbean was great", was the answer she gave when asked about her travel. But her favorite place to go is still the mountains.

Ida Jean (Michelle) Woodruff, who teaches math, likes square dancing, sewing and playing volleyball. She has been to nineteen different countries. She lived in Malaysia for fourteen months and Italy for three months. Last year at Thanksgiving time Miss Michelle became Mrs. Woodruff.

KOESTER RETIRES

Twenty-two years ago, Larry Koester was hired as a business teacher and an assistant football coach. Eleven of those years were dedicated to building a first class program. In the last three years his dreams became a reality. He saw his team win the STAL championship, advancing to quarter finals in CCS.

As pressures built, Koester became tired of the run-around with administration and the school district. Koester placed his resignation upon Mr. Matthew's desk in December.

All of the football players and former football players will miss this great man. They will always remember his strong leadership ability and the things he stood for.

Presently, he plans to keep teaching here.

NOLAN RESIGNS

Coaching, if done within the realm of "Nolanism," is not only demanding of hours, many hours it is also physically draining and emotionally exhausting. If you've ever been to a varsity game and observed Coach Nolan you have seen the transformation of mellow, quiet, mild-mannered man into a possessed, raving demon. Frank Nolan has given of himself totally, sometimes at the expense of his own well-being.

His priorities in life are shifting and the commitment Frank insisted a coach must have to do the job right was not as strong as it once was.

Frank Nolan started teaching and coaching varsity basketball here at Live Oak in 1977. His efforts and dedication to the team and individual players over the last 3 years will long be remembered by those whose lives he touched.

V.A.R. FOOTBALL

The 1979 Live Oak High School sophomore football team had a successful season. Our over-all record was 5-2-2. A team's record is the most obvious way to measure its success. A second way to measure a team's success is to look at its players. The 42 young men that made up the 1979 team were outstanding. The players had a strong belief in themselves and their teammates. They were never selfish and always hustled. When the team lost or tied they made no alibis, instead, they faced up to their failures and worked harder to prevent its happening again. The team made many sacrifices to become better and had a great commitment to excellence. The 1979 football season was a time of hard work and enjoyment. Truly, this was a very successful season.

In the past, water polo had been an unrecognized sport at Live Oak. This year more and more people are seeing that water polo is an important part of Live Oak's sports program. Coach Dave Foster has done a great job with both the J.V. and Varsity water polo teams. The Varsity water polo team entered C.C.S. with a 22-2 record after defeating Willow Glen to win the league title. The Varsity water polo total game record ended being 24-4 to place 5th in C.C.S. Coach Foster has high hopes for next year's team.

The Live Oak Field Hockey team has had an aggressive 1979-80 year. With Mrs. Viegas, Mrs. O has helped the team help themselves. For instance they played Leland and were beaten in the first round 2-0 and came back in the second round with the score 3-0; that's a come back. The team really pulled together to make scores like that. Here are but a few players who made it possible: Kay Price, Brenda Pickett, Dian Zavick, and last but not least Julie Delamagorie. Congratulations for a great year.

The Varsity team had an amazing record of 11-3 this year. They took second place in the league and just barely missed their chance to play in the regional competition. The team captains, Liz Haines and Theresa Fisher led the team to 11 straight victories. It was a great season.

BALL — VARSITY

The 1979-80 was a great year for the Live Oak girls' and JV Cross Country team. In more than four years the Cross Country team hasn't had a complete team because of the lack of participants. But this year they made up a team of seven runners, these runners are: Judy Gustafson, Nancy Mesunic, Betsy Justin, Penny Johnson, Marcia Gogh, Jackie Abrams, and Sherry Rose. The JV runners with their outstanding eight runners which will take the place of the graduating Varsity team. The Varsity team wishes them the best of luck

During the 1979-80 season the Live Oak Cross Country team has given their best, Scott Brock, Ricky Smith, Robert Smith. In their final year returning to the hilly Anderson Dam course and have been greeted by

The girl's swim team did a fantastic job this year. They took 2nd place in the league behind Leland with only a point spread of 12. All other league meets were an easy victory. The team had no real superstars but together they were dynamite. They all worked extremely well together. Live Oak sent 11 girls to CCS: three divers went to CCS-Liz Brooks, Val Garguilo, and Kristy Linderman. The divers did a super job; Liz Brooks placed 11th representing the varsity divers. Val Garguilo placed 14th and Kristy Linderman placed 18th. Not bad for the first year diving. Such swimmers as Susie Holt, Audrey Carty, Leta Schoengarth, Natalie Lyons, Kristy Morgan, Barbara Johnson, Penny Henderson, and Sue Torres represented L.O. at CCS.

Swimmers that placed in the top 12 schools were Susie Holt, Audrey Carty, Leta Schoengarth, and Kristy Morgan. The competition was awesome- But the girls were a threat to many. This year we only lost a couple of seniors and next year's team will prove to be quite strong. Coach Vidali would like to thank Randy Barton, John Avilla and Dan Scudero for coming out and helping the team be as successful as they were.

The 79-80 Girls Tennis team is the best that Live Oak has had in years. They started the season slow but ended it very strong finishing 4th in the league. Unlike last year's Varsity team, this year's team worked very hard. Good games for them this year were against Gilroy, 4-3; Lincoln 4-3; and they slaughtered San Jose 7-0. Outstanding singles players were Chris Weberbauer, Christina Yang, Kim Brooks, Aiko Yamauchi. Outstanding doubles were Karen Hilton and Tina Rhoades, also Brenda Wilkinson and Andrea Estrela.

The JV team did extremely well this year with the help of their new coach Mrs. Jensen. Varsity coach Ms. Lain hopes to have a successful team next year with the upcoming players.

Don Schatzel the girls soccer coach says that the team did super this year! This is the second year that Live Oak has had a soccer team for girls and many times our girls had to play teams that had eight to ten years of experience behind them. Many of the girls got a lot of practice in the summer and on weekends playing for the "El Toros". The "El Toros" are a soccer club in Morgan Hill. To briefly describe this years girl soccer team would be to say they're "Awesome"!

GIRLS

Though Varsity Soccer, coached by Mr. Nelson and Mr. Dow, was "less than successful" this year, they had their high points, such as a 1-0 win against last year's rival, Gilroy. There are several talented and consistent players, like Tim Weyland and Victor Parra. The J.V. team shows strong hope for a good season next year with such players as Ben and Carlos Hernandez, and Richard Vargas. With good players like these and a lot of teamwork, Coach Nelson expects a good showing next season.

This was coach Dwayne Asplund's first year coaching the girls' basketball team

The team was one of the best teams in the league and C.C.S. When they went to the Cupertino Invitational, they won consolation

Coach Asplund feels that next year's varsity team will be very good, because of the many good players who were on the J.V. level to take the places of seniors Brenda Pickett, Kay Price, and Dede Steinhoff. This year's Varsity team really suffered a loss when Susie Holt tore a ligament during a practice. Coach Asplund says that with Sherri Boone, Felicia Schuster, Rita Huppe and the hope-to-be-mended Susie Holt, next year's team will be excellent

GIRLS VARSITY

J.V. team ended the season with a 12-2 record, losing only to Gilroy and Leland

The team's success should be given to Ray Castro the J.V. basketball coach. Ray Castro is an alumni of Live Oak and this was his first year coaching. Exceptional players this year were team captain Rene Thiels Connie Latham, Julie Ornellas, Debbie Zaucha and Chris Price. Chris Price had come back near the beginning of the season after visiting in Oklahoma for a few months. These exceptional players were brought up to Varsity to play in the Shaughnessy play-offs. The J.V. team hosted a basketball tournament in which they placed first out of four teams. Three members got recognition Connie Latham received MVP. and Rene Thiels and Julie Ornellas received all tourney

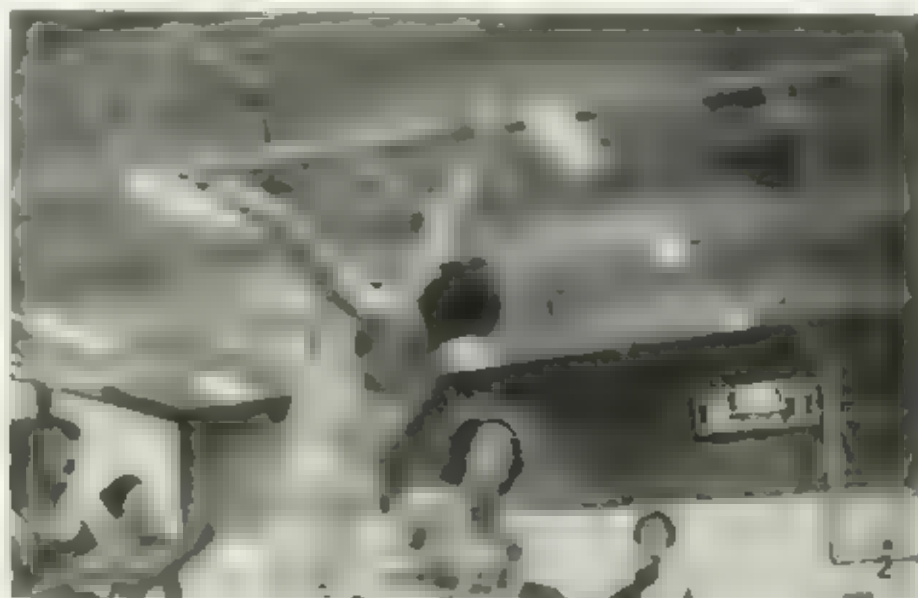

GIRLS J.V.

You can hear the yelling of the spectators when the Live Oak varsity basketball team comes on the court of the gym. But nothing to compare with the yelling that comes out of the mouth of Coach Frank Nolan. This year's team had a lot of talent, even though they are in a tough league the team still fought to beat off their opponents. In the 1979-80 season Eric Swanson, was ranked as one of the top scorers in the Central Coast Section, sophomore Derek Smith, who is a big hopeful in the years to come. Louis Tolbert and David Perry provided a defensive game. Some of the other high scorers on the Live Oak basketball team are Dan Brady and Dennis Loo. This year's team was made up mostly of seniors but with the up coming sophomores the team should do very well.

- 1 The coach and team watch their team play from the bench
- 2 Dan Brady runs for the ball
- 3 Coach Frank Nolan watches the team eagerly
- 4 Derek Smith goes for a free shot
- 5 Louis Tolbert, Dennis Loo, and David Perry stay on guard
- 6 Eric Swanson goes for a free shot, while Derek Smith looks on
- 7 Frank Nolan gets ready to yell at referee
- 8 Jeff Smith gives teammate moral support
- 9 Dan Brady goes for the rebound
- 10 The team huddles up to hear the plays

At this writing, the frosh-soph own a 4-4 league record. The team's trademark has been a hustling defense and disciplined offense. The team is led by co-captains Scott Schilling and co-captain, Scott Wigert, who is a starter for the second year on the frosh-soph team. Other starters are Steve Pacheco, and Tom Conlin. Heading a talented bench are Ward Barnes, Chris Culver, and John Rodriguez. Highlights, of the season this far are a third place finish in the Gilroy Frosh-Soph Tournament, and a 75-25 blasting of Lincoln.

SLAVES FOR $ALE

If you saw these strange looking people walking around school, you might think that your eyes were playing tricks on you. They weren't though. It was the Block L.O.'s slave day. The athletes were auctioned off the previous day, and the club raised about $200. The "slaves" proved to be a worthwhile investment, and a lot of fun. They were made to dress up in embarrassing costumes, carry books, open doors, clean lockers, etc., all for their "masters." The slave day will be an annual event for Block L.O. and it was the most fun that a fund raiser could be.

5. The Rally
6. Rally Training

Good organization by Rally Commissioner Shelley Boone made the 79-80 rallies some of the best we've ever had. The student body showed a lot of spirit during the rallies, perhaps even a little too much. In our first rally in September there was some immature conduct by the students. Undesirable language was exchanged and these actions forced Mr. Mathews to postpone any further rallies. By late October Mr. Mathews figured that we'd had enough punishment so he agreed to let the third rally proceed as scheduled. But, to make sure we had learned our lesson, there were judges in the gym to observe the students. We passed our test and the rallies were on again. The assemblies that followed were all great. They had many activities going on such as a pie eating contest, volleyball challenges and a beard growing contest. Our cheerleaders provided us with plenty of support and there was no more exchanging of undesirable language between the students, just spirit.

The Basketball homecoming of 1980 entailed not only the fuzzy faces of the beard growing contest, spirit, and pretty girls, but slave day as well. About $200 was made by auctioning off our L.O. jocks to the high bidding girls. The girls did what they wanted with the slaves for the whole school day of February 15, 1980.

The Modern Dancers

Walter Nowak

The variety Show, under the new Spotlights Coordinator, John Soares was full of surprises as well as talents to make the show successful

Unlike the Gong show, the twenty acts that participated in the new show were rehearsed and well put together

The acts ranged from singers to dancers to humorous skits and solo performers. The singing abilities of Debbie Gray and Chris Cambell highlighted the show as well as the innovative dancers of Ms. Villages' Modern Dancing Class, in their display of numbers like "Africano" and "Rock That". The humorous skit of John Townsend's "Sir from across the Water" also provided comical relief which added enhancement to the show. The show received a warm and enthusiastic response from the audience which made it rewarding and fun for the performers

The success of the show (of each individual participant) changed the attitudes of many students towards the theatrical world. In each of these students, there lies hidden abilities, ready to be tapped if given the chance

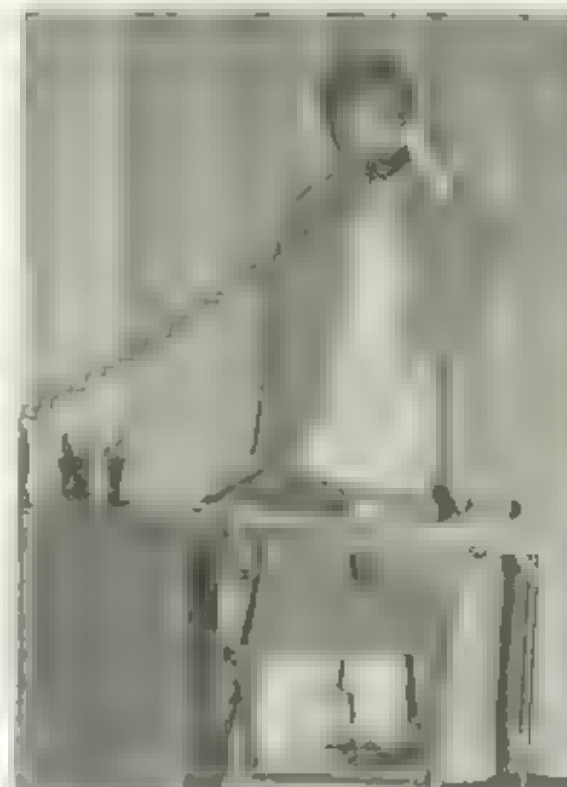

In the winter of '80, a group known as the Live Oak's Spotlight, took on the challenge of putting together a production called M*A*S*H. A challenge that had special problems like the props which the production used. The tent stage, the camouflage nettings, mess tent supplies and the army outfits to costume one of Live Oak's largest cast, all were the essential elements for creating an atmosphere of an army unit. But thanks to Sergeant James Sullivan, a recruiting officer working out of Gilroy along with an alumnus, Kelly Sweeney, technical director, were able to borrow the supplies from a military training base, Fort Ord.

Along with the props, there was also the problems with the special effects, like the simulation of numerous helicopters landing to drop off the wounded, which were handled, as a member of the cast would say, "... professionally."

After six weeks of preparation and the long hours of hard work M*A*S*H finally did go on its opening night on February 28. From the very opening scene, the theme song of M*A*S*H, "Suicide is Painless", which was sung by Bill Liebert, set the mood for the rest of the show. John Soarse, M*A*S*H director, had felt that "It will be a fine production", and true to his remark, it was.

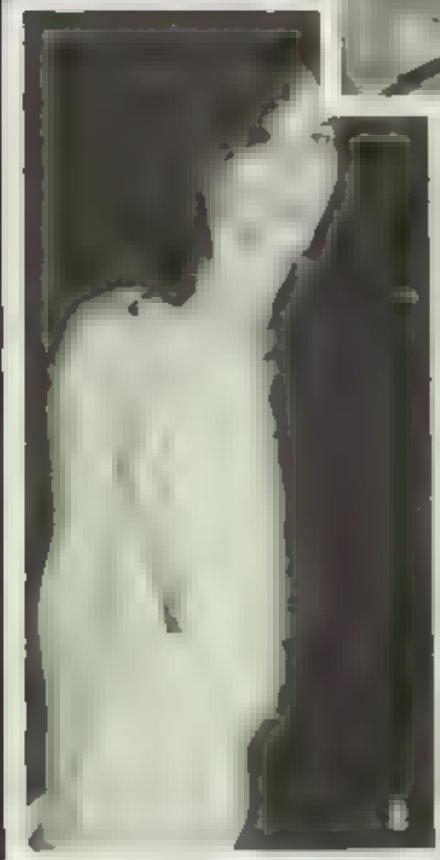

- #1 & 2 'Hawkeye' Pierce (John Townsend) in one of his zanny cranks as Captain Bridget MacCarty (Julie James) tries to figure out what he is.
- #3 Drowsy and half awake Lt. Colonel Blake (Lance LaShall) as a soldier from General Hammond (John Avilla).
- #4 "Hey you guys—this is the army and I don't want..." his somewhat naught authority on "Walt" (Bill Struzenberg) (Jim Cundiff).
- #5 "Here is a nice little..." Sergeant Divine (Bill Liebert) giving Captain Davis (Mark Davis) a hard sell.
- #6 The scene behind the scene.
- #7 Carol Jordan (with back forward) Leslie Keiz and Dawn St. Peter relaxing before a dress rehearsal.
- #8 "Kick 'em in the knee... Kick 'em..." The cheerleaders for the Blake gang against Gen. Hammond. (Julie James, Connie Lillie, Theresa Collins, and Laura L. Merman).

ONCE UPON A CHRISTMAS

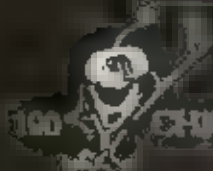

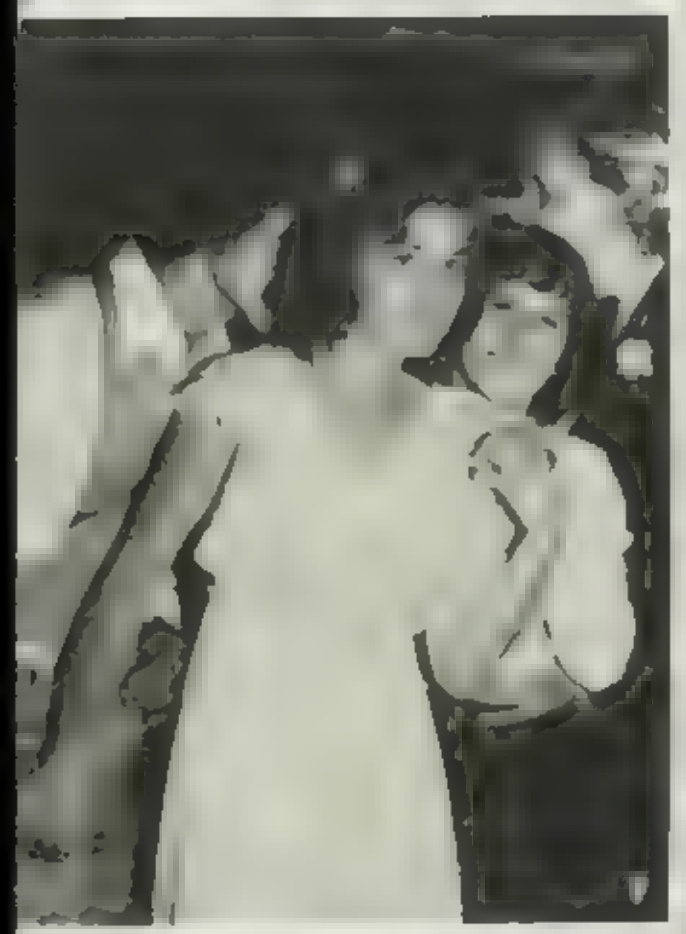

"Beautifully romantic." These are the only words to describe the Christmas Ball. The Elks Lodge, where the ball was held, was surrounded by a light mist that seemed to make the trees and the lights of the houses on the other side of the mountain glimmer in a faint glow.

The decorations made you feel as if Santa would be the very next caller. And if you were getting a little warm from dancing, or you just felt like being alone with a certain somebody, you could retreat to the bar and sip on the fresh breath of air in the cool winter night.

The evening was at its peak when the band began to play "Babe" by Styx.

The memorable night was the "Oak" "Night" "White" "Satin" Ball.

CHRISTMAS SALE

This year's dances were great. The bands that played drew quite a crowd. We listened to music from bands such as "Night Flight" and "Legend". They played a variety of music which seemed to please everyone. More people got up and danced than ever before which made this year's dances really dances!

THE REAL MEANING OF

The goal for this year's homecoming was to bring the real meaning back to homecoming. We welcomed back alumni and received strong community support by having a big turnout for homecoming. The spotlight was on the first football team of Live Oak-1956, all past cheerleaders and all past homecoming queens.

The Varsity football team beat Leland, their long-time rival from San Jose, 21-0.

Homecoming was almost cancelled when a group of students bombed a house with eggs during a float meeting. Homecoming was suspended until the administration and ASB had a meeting and decided to give the students another chance.

Swimming and diving has a new coach this year. Lynn Vidali assumed the duties from Dave Foster, last year's coach. With help from some great swimmers such as Jim Torres and Eric Quesada, Coach Vidale sent a lot of swimmers to C.C.S. for a sure victory. John Ayala, our only diver this year as he was last year, and did a great job for Live Oak. Coach Vidali hopes for more divers next year.

SWIMMING

Due to the growing popularity of this sport, this year's tennis team was the strongest and largest in the history of Live Oak. The four top players, Mark Speed, Steve Holcomb, Mark Lopez, and Duane Hobbes, were very competitive this year. The team went up against some heavy competition with Leland and Willow Glen the two power houses in the league.

TENNIS

As with the other students, the girls have a lot to say about their dance.

Miss Morgan helps with new moves.

MODERN DANCE

Friendship and fun are close to dance.

Modern dance was fun as well as an enriching alternative to regular physical education. Students learned choreographed techniques and also made up dances of their own. The variety show was a highlight of the year for the intermediate dance class. After long hours of practice and determination the spring concert including beginning and intermediate dancers was held. Modern dance is a good way to learn how to let your body go.

BOYS

BASEBALL

Varsity baseball coach, Mike Perez said that this year's team has the most ability of all the teams that he has coached. Pitching was a strong point with Jim Blean and Bill Hughes, both Seniors with great arms! Another strong point was their infield, with Dave Rameriz, Second Base and Short Stop, John Barret. Sophomore coach, Jim Hemeon and assistant Jim Nelson were overjoyed with the talent that the team had. Steve Pacheco, John Rodriguez, Mike Stevens, Matt Loera and Greg Runyon are also in the group of very talented players.

The girls' Gymnastic team this year was ranked second behind Leland. It was led by three seniors; Liz Brooks, Diane and Gayle Zavack, and a strong sophomore, Sheri Brutler. There were three consecutive home meets that had to be cancelled because either the opponents were not ready or were suffering from injuries. But this didn't dampen any of the girls' spirit or their goals, which were to beat Leland and to be ranked high.

While this is the third year for the boys' team, they are still not recognized as an official part of STAL. One of the problems the boys faced was to have someone to compete against. The boys' league isn't as strong as the girls' is because some high schools in the league don't even have a boys' team. This year the boys' team was led by Todd Bishop, John Park, and Ernie Guzman. The future outlook on the boys' team is becoming brighter as more and more high schools develop a boys' Gymnastic team.

BOYS & GIRLS

This year's boys' Track and Field team had its ups and downs. Many of the members were either cut or they cut. But somehow the team still survived.

There were many outstanding performances made by sprinter Don Lankey, jumper Paul Orong, and distance runners Scott Brock, Rick Smith.

The team still has a lot of tracksters coming up like Allen Britton, Mark Clampett, Curtis Allen and Derek Smith.

Because of a larger coaching staff, the team has been better organized. They are head coach Rich Gautschi, sprinter coach Dan Scidera, distance coach Frank Nolan, and weightman coach Mike Hauser.

BOYS

There were problems brought on by an article in the Mercury-News which included statements made by Coach Gautschi. Through a meeting, things were straightened out, and now there's a better sense of unity among the team members.

1. Don Lankey sprints.
2. Jeff Smith clears the winning height.
3. Robert Longley throws the shot.
4. Rudy Castro sprints to the line.
5. Rick Smith and Scott Brock clear the bar.
6. David Huppeshaw jumps over the barriers.
7. Don Lankey lights up the opponent.
8. Allen Britton shows his speed.
9. Rick Smith and Scott Brock ready to run.
10. Paul Orong appears in the first.
11. Curtis Allen shows his speed.
12. Kevin Smith keeps his pace.
13. Bob Swanson runs over the barriers.

TRACK and FIELD

This year's girls track and field team was extremely successful.

Many members of the team will return next year such as Toni Wiley, Judy Gustafson, Nancy Mosanic, Maggie Stein and Gurtha Pounds, who broke the school record in the 100 yard dash. Pounds also ranked #1 in CCS.

The team will lose athletes like shot putter Shelley Boone and high jumper Dede Steinhoff.

Coach Myrna Staal hopes to have a strong team in the years to come, since there is a lot of good up-coming athletes.
